BEATING HIS WAY FOR A WAGER. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 16.-Alfred Sentor arrived in this city today on the California express from the west, having traveled on various railroads across the con-tinent and half way back without having paid a cent for transportation and without a pass. Alfred Sentor is from Somersville, Mass. Three months ago he made a wager of $1,500 with L. B. Griffin, of Lowell, that he could beat his way to San Francisco from Boston and back again. Edward F. Locke was selected as referee and has accompanied Mr. Sentor on his journey. Mr. Sentor has been ousted from trains 180 times and it has often been a difficult thing for him to prevent kind-hearted people from paying his fare and losing the wager for him. He expects to reach Boston in a month.

Woodbridge was found on Seventh avenue, between Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets. Carey was found at the corner of Seventh avenue and Thirty-third street. Both were, in the opinion of different doctors, sandbagged. Both had had money, but were found robbed of everything. Both had their skulls fractured in the same place, namely, at the base. Both had been drinking, though neither was drunk. Both were stupefied, and neither could tell how or when he had been struck. Edward H. Woodbridge was a custom-house inspector for nearly ten years. He Edward H. Woodbridge was a custom-house inspector for nearly ten years. He was appointed under President Hayes. His father was the late Congressman Wood-bridge, of Vermont. Woodbridge was 38 years old and unmarried. His home was in Vincennes, Vt. Affweek ago Saturday he was paid off and received at least $.35, and perhaps more. At 11:30 o'clock on Sunday night he was found unconscious and bloading in the street. The next day sund perhaps more. At 11320 o clock on Sunday night he was found unconscious and bleeding in the street. The next day he called on Dr. C. N. Dowd, who had treated him two years before for a form of meningitis and found symptoms of its return. There was a black bruise at the base of the skull under the left ear, which Woodbridge could not account for. Spmptoms developed which made Dr. Dowd suspect a fracture of the skull and on Saturday he caused him to be removed to Roosevelt hospital. Woodbridge died on Sunday night. The autopsy showed that the base of the skull was badly fractured. Dr. Wiggins said today that his opinion was that the fracture was caused by a blow from a sandbag. The skin was not broken as would have been the case had Woodbridge falled upon a hard subhad Woodbridge failed upon a hard sub-stance with sufficient force to cause the JEWELRY STORE BURGLARIZED. AUGUSTA, Kan., Oct. 16 .- Last night the ewelry store of C. L. Viets was entered and completely cleaned out by burglars who obtained an entrance by springing the front door with a chisel, after letting down the awning in front so that they could work without detection. A large could work without detection. A large safe was blown open, two blasts being necessary—one on the outer and one on the inner door. These blasts were heard by several persons living in the vicinity about 1 o'clock, and one young man arose and went down on the street and saw two men retreating, but did not pursue his investigation further. The thieves were evidently good judges of jewelry. They took plenty of time and picked out all the diamonds, gold watches and solid gold chains and rings, while the plated stock and silver watches were left behind. The value of the stolen goods is placed at $2,000.
